

STAFF DEVELOPMENT AND TRAINING POLICY

Greengate encourages employees to attain optimum performance in their present position and to prepare for additional responsibilities. This can be achieved through training and education, either initiated through Greengate or employee's self-development activities maintaining and/or updating their current skills applicable to their contracted position.