

Joseph Banks
Aged Care Facility

Smoking Policy

Smoking is not permitted inside the Facility and all prospective residents and staff are advised that the Facility is a non-smoking precinct and are discouraged from smoking.

Residents who choose to smoke do so in a controlled area that does not impact upon the health and comfort of other residents. There is a designated area for staff to smoke located away from the facility.