

Staff Training and Development Policy Statement

Illawarra Diggers acknowledges the importance of assisting our employees to develop and enhance the skills and knowledge necessary to meet the demands and requirements of our work environment-and encourages and supports employees in their professional and career development as part of their employment.

We constantly review the need for training and development of individuals and staff generally. We facilitate their development through internal and external training programmes.