

ALCOHOL POLICY

Residents are welcomed to enjoy alcohol in moderation. Alcohol can be served with meals or when requested provided it does not react with the resident's medications. It is expected that excessive alcohol will not be brought into the home and consumption will not compromise the resident's safety or the safety of others.