

Avondale Heights

Whatever your background, you'll feel right at home at Dousta Galla Avondale Heights

Our residents come from all walks of life, with a variety of interests. We have been part of the community since 2004, fostering local connections to create a strong sense of belonging for both residents and staff in our aged care residence.

Doutta Galla Avondale Heights is a spacious light filled aged care residence with sweeping views over the Maribyrnong River parklands.

We can't wait to welcome you.

Doutta Galla Avondale Heights Aged Care offers a home-like atmosphere for residents, their families, and friends.

The Home embraces diverse cultures and religions, hosting events and providing special menus. With staff and residents speaking over fifteen languages, it fosters a vibrant community.

Residents enjoy fresh meals prepared by an in-house chef, with customised options for dietary needs. A registered nurse is available 24/7 to ensure residents receive necessary medical care.

Residents at Avondale Heights benefit from specialised nursing and allied health services that enhance their physical and mental well-being, including wound care, behaviour management and mental health support.

Lifestyle and social activities are vital for health, with daily group activities fostering friendships and skill development. Avondale Heights offers a weekly Italian social group, intergenerational programs, daily exercise classes, and various creative activities to meet individual preferences.
