Our home

At Mercy Place Albury, we are proud to provide quality care and accommodation where residents can feel safe, comfortable and valued. Our home is designed to suit all resident preferences with rooms available in large, lively wings or in quieter, more private households.

In our original building, you can choose from a variety of room layouts, all of which are stylishly decorated with modern amenities. Enjoy our spacious dining rooms, activity rooms, a library and cosy sitting areas where you can relax or entertain family and friends.

Our brand new households are home to a small number of residents. Each household is designed to look homely, with its own kitchen, dining and living room. A number of these new rooms enjoy direct access to a peaceful courtyard.

All common areas display contemporary artwork and have well-appointed furniture and premium décor. Enjoy the sunshine in an internal courtyard, join in an activity or group exercise, or attend a service or event at our beautiful chapel.

About Mercy Health

Call now to book a personal tour of Mercy Place Albury.

The modern story of Mercy Health began with the founding of the Order of the Sisters of Mercy in Dublin in 1831 by Catherine McAuley, who dedicated her life to serving people in need.

The Sisters of Mercy went on to found convents, schools and hospitals across the globe. They arrived in Australia in 1846, led by Mother Ursula Frayne.

Following a devastating influenza pandemic, the Sisters of Mercy opened their first Victorian hospital — St Benedict's in Malvern — in 1920.

As Mercy Health, they established a reputation for excellence in care and hospitality that has grown in strength to this day.

A leading Catholic provider of health, aged and community services, our history and future is based on responding to the most significant needs of the time.

We employ and care for people of all faiths and no faith. Our people come from many cultures and backgrounds but share a common goal: to provide compassionate and responsive care to people in need.
