Care Management

Care Management is an important service that includes coordinating care and services that will help you deliver on the goals you identified in your Care Plan. Our experienced Care Partners take the stress out of a complex health care system and they will assist in helping you meet your goals that you have identified.

At Adventist Senior Living, our mission is to serve and we are focussed on the delivery of quality care, supporting our clients to remain independent and living in their own home for as long as possible.

Working closely with your Care Partner, you will select services to meet your needs and goals. Our care management consists of:

- Ensuring the care is in accordance with the Aged Care Quality Standards
- Identifying and addressing risks to your health, safety and well-being
- Developing and scheduling of services as per your service delivery plan
- Developing and reviewing the Home Care Agreement, Service Delivery and Budget

Care Management may be provided in different ways, including face-to-face or via phone or email.
