Paying for your care

There are many options to fund your care including accessing Government-funded subsidies. An assessment will determine your eligibility for subsidies and any contributions you may need to make.

Carinity Home Care can provide services under both government-funded and non government-funded programs, including*:

- › Support at Home
- › Commonwealth Home Support Program
- › NDIS
- › Veterans' home care
- › Transition care
- › Fee for service, where you can privately fund your services

**Programs vary by location.*

Already receiving care? Switching to Carinity is easy

We understand over time your personal circumstances may change.

If your present home care provider is not changing with you and meeting your needs and expectations, then it's easy to switch to Carinity.

While it may seem a little daunting at first, we can take care of everything to ensure you start experiencing the Carinity difference straight away. We ensure your care is continued so you are not left without support. And we assist you, making it easy and worry-free to make the change.

“Carinity have been so good to me they’ve kept me on my feet.”
