Support at Home Price List

Note:

- * Personal care includes medication prompting for self-administration from qualified support workers aligning with your identified care needs.
- * Meal preparation is included as in house support. Please discuss meal delivery services with your care partner. This will be agreed upon in writing based on your preferences.
- * Fees and services regarding home maintenance will be agreed upon in writing with your care partner. This will be based on the assessed individual needs for your support and services.
- * If a service you require is not listed above, your Care Partner will work with you to establish an agreed rate that meets your individual needs.
- * If you would like to receive services who are currently not associated with Absolute Home Care, please discuss with your care partner how we can add them to your service providers.
- * Care management fees allow us to provide you with a dedicated and experienced Care Partner, who will coordinate and support all your services.
- * As outlined by the Government, Services Australia will deduct 10% of your quarterly budget to cover care management services. This means no additional contribution is required from you for care management services.
- * Cancellations: Absolute Home Care operates in alignment with the new Act, which requires 48 hours' notice to cancel any planned service. Where less than 48 hours' notice is provided, you will be required to pay your contribution for the cancelled service.
- * In most circumstances, services can be placed on hold for a defined period. We ask that you inform our team of any plans to pause your services so that suitable arrangements can be made. Where possible, please provide at least 48 hours' notice to prevent charges for services that have already been scheduled.
- * If you have exhausted all available funding and require additional support, you may choose to purchase services directly.

Absolute Home Care Pty Ltd reserves the right to change these rates at any time.
